

Student Membership Program

- Education • Volunteerism • Internships • Scholarships • Networking

Why become a student member?

- Great networking opportunities -- the KSCPA hosts a number of social events each year that provide students with the opportunity meet other members.
- Educational development -- throughout the year, the KSCPA hosts short seminars for students to be mentored by other members of the KSCPA on a variety of prevalent topics.
- Discounts -- the KSCPA has teamed up with many companies in order to provide its members with great benefits such as discounts on CPA exam test prep materials and courses.
- Volunteer opportunities -- help the KSCPA host events throughout the year. Then, stick around to attend the event yourself and get a free a lunch where you can meet experienced members.
- Leadership opportunities -- take the initiative to create task forces within the Up and Coming Professionals' program so that it can better benefit students in the accounting field.
- Sustainability -- the KSCPA has survived for nearly a century and it needs student members to help keep it fresh, young and successful.
- And so much more! As a brand new student membership program, the sky is the limit and the KSCPA is always open to new ideas.

Who's Eligible?

Any graduating high school senior who has declared accounting as a major, any college student with a declared major in accounting and is on the CPA track, or any graduate student with an emphasis in accounting.

Students do not have to be attending a college or university in Kansas, but they must have plans to work in the accounting profession in Kansas.

The KSCPA was founded October 17, 1932, and incorporated December 31, 1958, as a nonprofit organization to promote harmony, good feeling, and cordial relationships among members of the Society; to maintain professional honor and dignity; to encourage the highest attainment in the knowledge of accountancy; and to promote the professional interest of its members. As we entered a new century, the KSCPA leadership created a strategic plan; a plan that is continuously monitored and evolving.
