

Summary

A case presentation: FBI Kansas City investigated two county employees who, during the course of their career, devised a scheme to defraud the county by manipulating the accounting software to embezzle approximately $1 million.